

Illinois

Chicago

Parental consent for abortion is not required in the state of Illinois. No one will be given information about your visit without your written permission or unless required to by law. Illinois does not have a waiting period for abortion care.

Clinics in Chicago:

- American Women's Medical Group – Performs abortions up to 17 ½ weeks. (773) 772-7727
- Family Planning Associates Medical Group – Provides abortions through 23 ½ weeks. This clinic will assist with funding the abortion. (312) 707-8988
- University of Illinois Medical Center, Center for Reproductive Health – Provides abortions through 23 weeks and 6 days. May be able to go further if extenuating circumstances. Can usually get people scheduled and seen within a week. (312) 413-8553

Illinois

Planned Parenthood of Illinois clinics:

- Roseland Health Center – Medication and surgical abortions, provides surgical abortions up to 17 weeks, 6 days. (877) 200-7745
- Near North: Elizabeth Cohn Morris Health Center – Medication and surgical abortions, provides abortions up to 22 weeks. (312) 266-1033

The following clinics provide medication abortion only up to 11 weeks:

- Loop Health Center - (312) 592-6700
- Wicker Park Health Center - (773) 252-2240
- Englewood Health Center - (773) 434-3700
- Austin Health Center - (773) 287-2020
- Rogers Park Health Center - (773) 942-7193

Illinois

Other organizations that provide funding:

- Chicago Abortion Fund – Offers practical support and funding for abortion. Have patient check website for details on applying for assistance. (312) 663-0338
- Midwest Access Coalition - Helps pay for practical support. (847) 750-6224
- NAF Hotline Fund – Only if going to a NAF certified clinic and will need an appointment with a clinic and the cost of the procedure. Will help with cost of abortion and practical support. 1-800-772-9100
- WRRAP – Clinic must have a relationship with WRRAP and the clinic will have to contact WRRAP. Patients should ask clinic if they have a relationship with WRRAP.

